Description

TMEC is a cluster organization focusing on the development of the production sector, mostly of the metalworking, machinery and automotive industry. Our main focus is to support local SMEs in order to be more competitive and to be up to date with the latest technologies. Besides the latest technologies it is a need of well-prepared human workforce, our cluster organization found great partners in local vocational schools and universities. We are focusing on students and forming young researchers for an innovative future and we are continuously forming innovative culture among our members.
